POLICY ON UNION DUES/INITIATION FEES – LOCAL 1199

Dated: April 9, 2015
Supersedes: HR.904 Union Dues/Initiation Fees – Local 1199 dated July 20, 1993

I. PURPOSE

To establish guidelines for deducting union dues and initiation fees for Local 1199 employees.

II. POLICY

It is the policy of New York Medical College to deduct union dues and initiation fees for Local 1199 union employees of the College as defined in their Collective Bargaining Unit Agreement.

III. SCOPE

This policy applies to all Local 1199 employees of the College.

IV. DEFINITIONS

A. Union Dues - the amount deducted on a monthly basis from the wages of union employees for membership in the union per the Collective Bargaining Unit Agreement.

B. Initiation Fees - the amount deducted from the wages of union employees following their probationary period for enrollment in the union. Initiation fees, if paid previously for 1199 union membership are waived for a New York Medical College employee.

V. PROCEDURES

A. During Benefits Orientation Program, the union member will complete the Application For Membership/Check-Off Authorization (HR-53) form so that the union dues and initiation fees can be deducted from the union member's payroll check.
B. Upon receipt of a written authorization from the union employee, the College deducts union dues monthly in the amount stipulated in the Local 1199 Collective Bargaining Unit Agreement based on weekly earnings. This deduction begins after the completion of the employee's first thirty (30) days of employment. As of 7/1/2001, the deduction schedule for union dues is 2% of Gross Wages per month, excluding overtime, to a maximum of $75.00 per month.

C. Upon receipt of a written authorization from the union employee, the College deducts initiation fees in the amount stipulated in the Local 1199 Collective Bargaining Unit Agreement based on weekly earnings on a bi-weekly basis for four (4) pay periods. This deduction begins after the completion of the employee's first ninety (90) days of continuous employment. Below is the current Initiation Fee Deduction Schedule.
