POLICY ON VICTIM AND SURVIVORS STUDENT BILL OF RIGHTS, REPORTING AND INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS AND RESOURCES AVAILABLE REGARDING ALLEGED SEXUAL VIOLENCE INCIDENTS

Date: September 25, 2015
Supersedes: None
References: Statement of Non-Discrimination Policy, dated September 25, 2015; Sexual Harassment Policy, dated September 25, 2015; Policy on Sexual and Gender-Based Misconduct and Policy for Alcohol and Drug Use Amnesty in Sexual Violence Cases, dated September 25, 2015

I. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to affirm the commitment of New York Medical College (“College”) to comply with applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations including with Article 129-B of the New York State Education Law.

II. Policy

It is the policy of the College to incorporate the Victim and Survivors Student Bill of Rights (“Student Bill of Rights”) as set forth below as part of the College’s code of conduct, to distribute the Student Bill of Rights annually to the College’s students, to post it on the College’s website and in the College’s Student Housing facilities and other College’s building on its campus and include links or information to file a report and seek a response. It is also the policy of the College to advise reporting individuals of their rights and to provide information on resources available to them as described in this Policy.

III. Student Bill of Rights

All students of the College have the following rights regarding alleged sexual violence incidents:

- Make a report to local law enforcement and/or state police;
- Have disclosures of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and sexual assault treated seriously;
- Make a decision about whether or not to disclose a crime or incident and participate in the judicial or conduct process and/or criminal justice process free from pressure by the College;
- Participate in a process that is fair, impartial and provides adequate notice and a meaningful opportunity to be heard;
- Be treated with dignity and to receive from College courteous, fair and respectful health care and counselling services, where available;
- Be free from any suggestion that the reporting individual is at fault when these crimes and violations are committed, or should have acted in a different manner to avoid such a crimes or violations;
- Describe the incident to as few College representatives as practicable and not be required to unnecessarily repeat a description of the incident;
• Be protected from retaliation by the College, any student, the accused and/or the respondent, and/or their friends, family and acquaintances within the jurisdiction of the College;
• Access to at least one level of appeal of a determination;
• Be accompanied by an advisor of choice who may assist and advise a reporting individual, accused, or respondent through the judicial or conduct process including during all meetings related to such process;
• Exercise civil rights and practice of religion without interference by the investigative, criminal justice, or judicial or conduct process of the College.

IV. Response to Reports-Reporting Individual Rights

The College shall ensure that all reporting individuals are advised of their right to:

• Notify College’s Campus Security, local law enforcement and/or state police;
• Have emergency access to a Title IX Coordinator or other duly authorized representative of the College trained in interviewing victims of sexual assault who shall be available upon the first instance of disclosure by a reporting individual to provide information regarding options to proceed, and, where applicable, the importance of preserving evidence and obtaining a sexual assault forensic examination as soon as possible, and detailing that the criminal justice process utilizes different standards of proof of evidence and that any questions about whether a specific incident violated the penal law should be addressed to law enforcement or to the District Attorney. Such College representative shall also explain whether he or she is authorized to offer the reporting individual confidentiality or privacy, and shall inform the reporting individual of other reporting options;
• Disclose confidentially the incident to representatives of the College, who may offer confidentiality pursuant to applicable laws and can assist in obtaining services for reporting individuals;
• Disclose confidentially the incident and obtain services from the state or local government;
• Disclose the incident to College representatives who can offer privacy or confidentiality, as appropriate, and can assist in obtaining resources for reporting individuals;
• File a report of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and/or stalking and the right to consult with a Title IX Coordinator or other duly authorized representative of the College for information and assistance. Reports shall be investigated in accordance with College policy and a reporting individual’s identity shall remain private at all times if said reporting individual wishes to maintain privacy;
• Disclose, if the accused is an employee of the College, the incident to the College’s Human Resources Authority or the right to request that a confidential or private employee assist in reporting to the appropriate Human Resources Authority of the College;
• Receive assistance from appropriate College representatives in initiating legal proceedings in Family Court or Civil Court; and,
• Withdraw a complaint or involvement from the College’s process at any time.
The College shall ensure that reporting individuals are informed that, if any individual discloses information through a public awareness event such as candlelight vigils, protests, or other public event, the College is not obligated to begin an investigation based on such information. The College may use such information provided at such an event to inform its efforts for additional education and prevention efforts.

In addition to the above, the College shall ensure that, at a minimum, at the first instance of disclosure by a reporting individual to a Title IX Coordinator or other authorized College representative, the following information is presented to the reporting individual:

"YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO MAKE A REPORT TO THE COLLEGE’S CAMPUS SECURITY, LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT, AND/OR STATE POLICE OR CHOOSE NOT TO REPORT; TO REPORT THE INCIDENT TO THE COLLEGE; TO BE PROTECTED BY THE COLLEGE FROM RETALIATION FOR REPORTING AN INCIDENT; AND TO RECEIVE ASSISTANCE AND RESOURCES FROM THE COLLEGE."

V. Resources Available

All contact information for the listed resources was confirmed as of the date of this Policy. Up to date contact information can always be found on the College’s policies website at https://www.nymc.edu/universitypolicies/

The following resources are available to reporting individuals:

NYMC SECURITY OFFICE (Not Confidential)

- Blue Light Program
  The College has 16 blue light emergency phone towers located on the Valhalla campus walkways and parking lots and in the student housing complex. These phones are used to report emergencies to security. The phones are easily recognized by the steady blue light at the top of the tower and the word “Emergency” on all 4 sides. Each phone has an identifying number and usage instructions just below the silver faceplate. Pressing the red button on the silver phone face plate automatically dials in to a central number in the security office. The phone number and location is displayed on a monitor. If the phone is not answered immediately by security the call is automatically forwarded to Westchester County Department of Public Safety.
Upon activation of the phone, the blue light goes from steady to a flashing strobe to alert others in the area and to guide emergency responders. Persons using these phones should make every effort to speak in a loud and clear voice.
